A Trip to Lyngby-Taarbæk

Imagine a place where you can find everything from castles and old half-timbered houses to modern architectural residences – a place with a long cobbled shopping street, shopping centers, specialty stores, cozy cafes and restaurants – a place with thick woods, large plains roamed by herds of deer, lakes and the sea – a place where you can immerse yourself in art and history or scream with excitement in the roller coasters at the amusement park – a place where you can practice almost any kind of outdoor sports and activities: sailing, swimming, cycling, hiking, climbing, fishing or horseback riding. Such a place is Lyngby-Taarbæk.

We are an international university town and we love to show off our beautiful areas to visitors.

Do pay us a visit – it's only 19 minutes by the train from The Copenhagen Central Station.

Taarbæk, by the sea Øresund, also offers several places where you can go for a swim.

- Bombegrunden in Taarbæk is a 40 meter long beach with shallow waters and a small lawn.
- At Rosenhaven, south of Taarbæk Harbor, you'll find Taarbæk Søbad, which has a bathing jetty that can be used all year round and a small lawn where the children can play.
- At Taarbæk Harbor you can bathe from a jetty at the harbor's southern pier.
- At Springforbi Strandpark, north of Taarbæk Harbor, opposite Trepilevej, there is a small bathing spot.

Bellevue beach is actually located in the neighbouring Municipality of Gentofte, at the border of Lyngby-Taarbæk, but it's legendary for its grand beach and great lawns.

Explore a World Heritage Site

A heritage site of grand scenery and unique animal life.

The hunting trails radiate from the Hermitage out over Dyrehaven and is a reminder that the park was made 350 years ago as the scene for the grand royal par force hunts. The king could follow the hunts by looking down the completely straight trails, while packs of hounds and hunters pursued the real king of Dyrehaven, the red deer, until it eventually succumbed.

Follow in the footsteps of the kings of the past on foot, by bicycle or by horse-drawn carriage from Klampenborg Station or Bakken Amusement Park – and experience the unique animal life with red, fallow and sika deer together with the grand scenery which was chosen as a UNESCO World Heritage site in 2015.
